For CANCELLATIONS that are made in advance of 14 days of the trip, deposits are non-refundable, but are transferable within the same year of booking. The balance, minus the deposit is however refundable. For cancellations made within the 14 days before trip, no refund can be given. For our dive trips we require divers are ADVANCED OW or above (or equivalent) and have AT LEAST 20 LOGGED DIVES, most of which must have been done in the UK (or similar) waters. (if divers are part of a club, it is okay if they don't quite make the requirements, as long as they are diving with an instructor or dive master). We also ask that divers either share a delayed SMB with their buddy or ideally have one each).
